Suspicious Submission .- A small boy had been baving a day of unmitigated out rageouscess, such as all children who do not de young are likely to have at times, and when he was ready for bad his mather

"When you say your prayers, Georgie, ask God to make you a better boy. You have sen very naughty to-day."

The youngster accordingly put up his petitimes in the usual form, and then before closing with "Amen" he added: "And please, God, make me a good boy." He pensed a second, and then, to utter the constantial of the matter. sternation of his mother, concluded with unabaled gravity: Nevertheless, not my will, O Lord, but Thine bedone."

THE WARRENTON COURT HOUSE BELL .-The first belt which was brought to War renton was destroyed when the Court-house was burned in 1853. The first fami ly of Colognes who came to this country from San Domingo told of a riot there in which a monastry had been destroyed and that the bell which bel nged to it had been saved. Mr. Jac. Blackwell and Mr. Jaseph Horner were appointed by the court to begoldate for the bell and they bought it in 1805. It was a bell of great strength and sweetness and when lost in the fire great pains was taken to get snother of the same tone, which we halteve was done. We hope the same success will attend those who buy the next bell .- Warrenton Virginian
